1. GO(MS) No. 54/04/SWD Dated 30.7.2004
2. GO (MS) No. 20/05/LSGD Dated 20.01.2005

ORDER

As per the Government order read as 1st paper above, Government have introduced a pilot scheme in selected ICDS blocks named "Take Home Ration Strategy" (THRS)

2. As per the Government order read as 2nd paper above, directions were given to all Local Self Government Institutions for the effective implementation of the above scheme.

3. Government have further examined the matter in detail and are pleased to issue the guidelines as mentioned below:

- (i) Each CDPO would calculate the cost of giving special nutrition panchayath/municipality/corporation- wise based on the number of children in each anganwadi within the village panchayath/municipality/corporation.
- (ii) In the case of village panchayath, it will 2/3 of the estimated cost for 3 months to the CDPO. The block panchayath would remit the remaining 1/3 for all the village panchayats within the jurisdiction. Municipality and corporation will pay the full cost of three months.
- (iii) While calculating the cost, CDPO would reduce the amount of Central Assistance (the Director of Social Welfare would indicate CDPO - wise availability under Central Assistance).
- (iv) Transportation of the food materials would be arranged by the CDPO. The cost of transportation would be included in the total project cost (village panchayath/municipality/corporation wise)
- (v) Kudumbasree units would be given fortnightly indents. Payments would be made within two days of delivery
